SUBSCRIPTIONS 1980/81

I should like to thank our overseas members for the excellent response to my request for subscriptions to be remitted in sterling currency whenever possible, and I am particularly grateful to those members who, although unable to remit in sterling, were kind enough to send extra payments to cover conversion costs. The financial benefit to the Society is very considerable!

On the other hand, about fifty members had renewed their subscriptions for 1980/81 before the new rates were announced in the July Journal. It is not practicable to circularise these members individually, but if anyone who falls into this category would care to send me the balance, it will be gratefully received! The balances payable are shown below, and overseas members are asked to remit in sterling or dollar bills - dollar cheques are hopelessly uneconomic for small amounts such as these.

U.K.: £1.00      Overseas Surface Mail: £1.50 ($4.00)      Overseas
Air Mail: £3.00 ($8.00)

Cheques should be made payable to "NDFHS" and all remittances should be sent to Mr J.G. Scott, 33 Bywell Close, Crawcrook, RYTON, Tyne and Wear, NE40 4XD.

EDITORIAL

As new Journal Editor and as Chairman, I think the only appropriate way to start would be by thanking Geoff Nicholson for all the work he has done over the past five years. I know I am going to find 'filling his shoes' a very difficult task, but hope that my efforts will succeed in maintaining the high standards that Geoff always upheld, even in the most adverse of circumstances.

The circumstances are indeed adverse at the time of writing! I have in my files virtually no copy and it looks very much as if I am going to have to write begging letters to our regular contributors if there is to be any hope of worthwhile copy forthcoming. With such a widespread and varied membership as ours, there must be many of you who have something to contribute that will be of general interest to all. May I therefore remind you of some of the items that could help to swell our pages:-

1. Letters to the Editor.
2. 'Know Your Parish'
3. Articles advising on research methods or listing resources.
4. Articles on notable North-East England families.
5. Articles on local history, population movements, industries and institutions - especially insofar as they would throw light on genealogical research, and family history.
6. 'Strays' and 'fillers' (e.g., unusual Monumental Inscriptions, or out-of-the-area mentions of North-East families).
7. - Well, what other things would you like to see? We have a number of extracts from parish registers, lists of monumental inscriptions and so on, that could be published - but is this really what you want to read?

Our treasurer, John Scott, asks me to remind you about your subscription which is now out of date if you haven't paid it already! See the July issue for details.

Enclosed in this Journal you will find details of our Christmas function at the Five Bridges Hotel - if you wish to attend, please forward your money as soon as possible so that Alan Angus will have some idea of numbers. Our meetings give us little opportunity to socialise in comfortable surroundings, and I should like to urge all our local members to make a real effort to attend and make the evening a success.

Virtually all our Committee members are in full-time occupations, and the time they can find to attend to the Society's affairs is, at best, limited. "Ask a busy person" is all very well as far as it goes, but I am quite certain that we are not doing as much as we could, either to help the Society or to further research and copying in the area. The work steadily increases as the membership grows, and as organisations such as the Federation of Family History Societies, please us with requests for information on this, or lists of our holdings on that. Four times a year the Journal has to appear, yet we can rely upon only a tiny handful of stalwarts - Pat Storey our typist, Bill Rounce our "stapler-up and poster", Bob Vine our address-printer - to carry the burden of the work. Other project co-ordinators have virtually no-one to co-ordinate, and thousands of Monumental Inscriptions have been copied thanks to the initiative of less than a dozen members.

We are desperately in need of the help of members who have time on their hands, to take a major part in the running of the organisation. Would not the preservation and recording of our local records be a noble task for a retired person who has the time and the motivation to work several hours a week transcribing registers, typing, co-ordinating, distributing? We need people who have time to sit back and think about what we should be doing as a Society - what the Journal should contain - what activities we can undertake. Up until now our Committee meetings have been conducted in haste and our decisions have tended sometimes to reflect the lack of time we have given to considering issues.

Your Committee will continue to run the Society's affairs as efficiently as it can, yet it is in need of that most precious of commodities - time. If you have time on your hands, contact Bill Mantey and you will quickly be found something to occupy you!

One final note: our Membership Secretary, Mrs Power, asks me to inform you that virtually all early editions of the Journal have now sold out - please do not send any more money for back copies for the time being. A further reprint may take place if demand warrants it.

I look forward to receiving a flood of contributions! Please note Copy Date: November 22nd. Copy received after that date will be included in the April edition.

SECRETARY'S JOTTINGS

At the start of a new year in the life of the Society I would like to remind members of one or two points.

Firstly, on the point of correspondence with the Society, if you wish to write to an officer, please enclose a stamped addressed envelope if you live in the British Isles, or overseas members should enclose a self-addressed envelope with two international reply coupons. Most members do so, but our postal bill is still very large.

Secondly, as a Society we do not undertake research for anyone, nor do we hold any records other than membership records.

All of your officers hold honorary positions, and therefore have to fit in the Society's work with making a living, family life, genealogy and their other interests; this is why you might have to wait sometimes for a reply - your request for information may be one of twenty in a week.

As the new secretary I wish to make my intentions known at the outset. I am now looking for someone to take over from me. It took Alan Readdie five years to find a replacement, I intend to do it in two.

My experience of research in Durham is extremely limited, in fact I have visited the Durham Record Office only once, and the Department of Palaeography twice, and that was to research some Northumberland wills. I am therefore looking for someone who is willing to answer the occasional query specific to Durham. I would prefer it to be someone not at present on your committee, and of course it need not necessarily be anyone who is able to attend monthly meetings.

I intend to start a series of Journal articles for the absolute newcomer to family history, but I would like this series to involve more members in the Society's work, in fact I wish to start an essay competition with the first subject to be "Northumberland and Durham Wills, their whereabouts and uses". The rules are few and simple: no entry may exceed six thousand words in length, all entries to reach the editor by New Year's Day 1981, and the prize will be to have the best entry published in the Journal.

I feel it would be helpful too, if overseas members could submit articles based on the whereabouts of information and record sources relating to immigrants from our region in their various countries.

I have received from the Federation of Family History Societies a monograph of sixty pages entitled "Beginning your Family History". It is compiled by George Pelling, the Federation's Education Liaison Officer. I have read it and I can recommend it. I have a few copies available to U.K. members at £1.00 postage paid and for the moment $2 Australian or $2.50 USA or Canada.

FAMILIES OF ELSDON IN REDESDALE, NORTHUMBERLAND

J.K. Brown

I have recently, after many years of search, obtained a copy of the "Register of Baptisms, Marriages and Burials, solemnised in the ancient Parish Church of Elsdon, Northumberland, from the year 1672 to 1812". This book was transcribed from the original parish records by the Rev. T. Stephens, Vicar of Horsley in Redesdale, and was published by the Society of Antiquaries of Newcastle-on-Tyne in 1903. The transcript also gives all the names of the Rectors of the parish from the year 1220, the names of all the churchwardens from 1672, and other interesting data. The persons named in the register would be only two or three generations removed from their cattle thieving and lawless ancestors, the "Border Rievers".

Stephens describes our ancestors of the middle ages as being the sturdy sons of a long line of sturdy sires, a separate people and distinct, Ishmaelites indeed, their hand against every man and every man's hand against them. Holding little or no intercourse with their neighbours (of Tynedale and Coquetdale) except to relieve them of their sheep or cattle, they were a tough hardy breed of people, independent, stubborn, clinging tenaciously to old habits and traditions. They ruled their dependants in accordance with the customs and traditions of the ancient tribal system, which belonged to them as lineal descendants of the Celt, what wonder that, so situated in the remote valley or dale so close to the Scottish borders, that they should stand forth as we see them throughout the middle ages as fearless, hot-blooded, quick to avenge a real or supposed wrong, a terror to their more peace-loving neighbours. They were alternatively tolerated and harrassed by the State, as they were found useful or otherwise in carrying on Border warfare against the Scots, with almost monthly skirmishes and local nightly thieving.

An English commander, in a despatch written at the close of the sixteenth century, declared that there was more plundering and bloodshed by the English thieves than by all the Scots in Scotland. And so it was; every village had its party of thieves, every family had its own feuds and wrongs to avenge. No one in those days could go to bed with the certainty of finding his own cattle in the fold when he arose in the morning. The effects of such a system was most disastrous. Agriculture was necessarily neglected. Refinement there was none, and all the gentler arts were uncultivated and unknown.

Passing on through the centuries to our present time of 1980, if any member with ancestors from Redesdale or Elsdon cares to study traits of his or her own character, they will probably be able to identify some of them, albeit in the milder form, as being similar to those of ancestors. I know I can; I'm stubborn, very direct, and I still cannot accept the European Common Market (nothing to do with politics). Now the temperature is in centigrade, and we have kilograms and tonnes (not tons); to me, all alien changes. My father can recollect his mother saying on many occasions that she had been married to a 'cuddy' for nigh on seventy years, inferring my grandfather was 'as stubborn as a mule'. Both my paternal grandparents died in their nineties.

In the middle ages and in the period covered by Stephens (1672-1812), the most prominent families in Redesdale, which then included Otterburn, were the notorious Halls, "the false Halls", by reason of their numerical strength; the Reeds, Hedleys, Potts and the Browns, who sired Lancelot 'Capability' Brown, who, although born at nearby Kirkharle, was a grandson of the Ravenscleugh family of that name. There were the Andersons, Coxons, and also the Robsons and Elliots, who, although in Redesdale, were a branch of their Tynedale ancestors.

If any reader wishes me to search for Elsdon ancestors who were born, married or buried in the period 1672-1812, I will gladly do so - stamped, addressed envelope please to me at 33 South Bend, Brunton Park, Gosforth, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, NE3 5TR.

KNOW YOUR PARISH

V. CRAMLINGTON, NORTHUMBERLAND

Joan Bunting

Few people passing Cramlington New Town by road or rail would attribute to this rapidly expanding community any history. They would of course be wrong. A brief outline is as follows.

The remains of two Anglo-Saxon towns have been found near the railway line. These later developed into the hamlet of Whitelaw which later still became Whitelaw Farm.

In the ninth century the Vikings attacked and eventually settled - mainly under a King Kramel - hence Kramel'ton - Cramlington.

1163 - A chapel, 'Our Chapel of St. Mary' was erected on the site of the present church (St. Nicholas).

1270 - The village of Cramlington consisted of a hall, a chapel, four cottages and a water mill owned by Adam of Jesmond.

1327 - 'Our Chapel of St. Mary' was renamed St. Nicholas. By 1665 St. Nicholas was almost completely ruined and the Lawson family, who owned most of Cramlington, paid for repairs.

Early seventeenth century - Coal was being mined at Plessy and taken by horse drawn wagon to Blyth. Hartford Colliery begun.

1812 - Both mines closed. Church school opened.

Nineteenth century - Cramlington population increasing, due to opening of collieries and East Coast railway line: 1821 Census - 280 inhabitants; 1851 - 3,367.

1 July 1847 - Railway opened - Station Master: Joseph Mundy. We also know that the grocer and flour dealer was Thomas Atthy, James Barras was butcher, John Bell another grocer, William Bell a brick-maker and the surgeon was Robert Craig.

1851 - Four public houses, including the Railway Tavern which still exists.

1853 - Girls' School opened.

1865 - A new church was built, completed in 1868.

By 1855 Cramlington consisted of three distinct communities: (1) the old village; (2) West Cramlington, established around one of the larger pits; and (3) East Cramlington, taking its character from nearby Seaton Delaval.

Early twentieth century - Shankhouse had a famous football team, "Shankhouse Black Watch", who played and won all over the country.

Mining accidents were a fact of life in the village. For example: 2.3.1860 Burradon and Hartley - a gas explosion killed 76 men and boys; 1862 Hartley Pit disaster - 215 men and boys died after the beam from the engine fell, blocking the shaft; 1886 a seven year old boy killed.

Apart from mining, the other main employment was farming. There were four main farms: Bells, Whitehall, East and West Farms. Much of the old farm land remained until fairly recently. Some of the land was used as an airfield in the First World War. Now even more is providing the site of the new town, many of whose estates take the names of the twelve farms listed in the 1886 directory, and others from the pits and coal seams upon which they are built.

Landowners of Cramlington since Kramel have included Nicholas de Grenville (barony of Ellingham); the Gaugy family (Lords of Jesmond); and William Cramlington; whose daughters both married into the Lawson family and took East and West Cramlington respectively as their portions. West Cramlington remained with the Lawsons until it passed to Adam Cardonnel (Adam Mansfeldt de Cardonnel-Lawson!), whose son sold it to Sir Matthew White Ridley in 1834. East Cramlington was purchased from Sir John Lawson in 1791 by Robert Storey and his daughter and heiress married George Shum, who built Arcot House (now a golf club). He was succeeded by Henry Shum-Storey whose daughter married Captain Shawe in 1872. A Mrs Shawe-Storey was living at Arcot in 1928.

Cramlington became a parish in 1800 having previously been a chapelry of St. Nicholas, Newcastle-upon-Tyne. The original parish records at Northumberland County Record Office are more or less complete from 1665 and there are copies for 1665-1812 in Newcastle Central Library. Marriages 1666-1812 are in Boyd's Index and Banns 1754-1812 in Boyd's Miscellaneous Volumes. Bishops' Transcripts exist, with gaps, from 1762 to 1858 at the Department of Palaeography and Diplomatic, University of Durham. Cramlington Church Yard Monumental Inscriptions were copied in 1978 by pupils of Cramlington High School, but have as yet to be indexed ( - I'll get round to it one of these days! - Ed.).

- 908 Mr J. RUTTLEY, 199 Gleneagles Rd, Grindon, Sunderland, Tyne & Wear, SR4 8JD.
Researching the family of Ruttley/Rutledge/Routledge, and possibly Luttley, of the Monkwearmouth and Southwick areas of Sunderland in the 19th century and Yorkshire in the 18th. Also interested in Yule (Monkwearmouth and S. Shields, 19th cent.), Proctor (Sunderland), Holroyd (Sunderland and Yorkshire), Robson, Welch, Colledge, Blakelock and Todd (all Monkwearmouth, 19th century).
- 909 Mrs J. HOWE, "Starbeck", 7 Mayfair, Pedmore, Stourbridge, W. Midlands, DY9 OXE.
Interested in George Armstrong, b. Haltwhistle, 13/8/1813, who married Mary Warwick of Croglin in 1833. His parents were John and Mary Armstrong, who were both born in 1781, but their places of birth are a mystery.
- 910 Mr J.L. ROBERTSON, 11951 Mayfield Ave, #202, Los Angeles, California 90049, USA.
Researching the families of Matthew Robson and Mary Stoker and their eight (or possibly more) children. Matthew was born 1833/4, probably in Co. Durham but possibly in Northumberland. Mary was born in May 1837, again probably in Durham, although there may be a Welsh connection. Her parents were John Stoker and Mary Nesbith. Matthew and Mary emigrated to the USA, in the 1860s, where Matthew worked as a miner.

SECOND TIME AROUND

- 11 Mr G.T. MILLICAN, "Tyr-Conall", 10 Wedderburn Rd, Newliston, Kirkcaldy, Fife, Scotland, KY2 6UY.
Mr Millican is in dire need of help and would welcome any clue! Will anyone who has noticed the name Millican in any early registers or Bishop's Transcripts please indicate which area or district in order that he may be guided in a direction of further search.

- 19 Mr J.R. REAY, Maythorne, 5 North Rd, Berwick-upon-Tweed.
Seeking the birth of Rachel Brewis, c.1788, died Berwick, 1841.
Also, interested in the family of James Corbitt, cart proprietor of Newcastle, and his wife Mary (née Curry) both b. Elsdon, but living in Newcastle at least from 1830 onwards. They were at 9 Railway Street in 1851 but Mr Reay would like to trace them in the 1841 Census. Mr Reay has traced his ancestry back to John Errington of Ponteland, who lived there at least 1679-90; the names of his children make it clear that he belonged to the Errington family whose pedigree is on pp. 463-5 of the Northumberland Co. History, vol. 12, but Mr Reay cannot find the connection - can anyone help?
- 37 Miss P.J. STOREY, 29 Macdowall Rd, Edinburgh, EH9 3EQ.
Does anyone know if the registers for Sunderland Unitarian Chapel survive for the years 1837-1878? Tyne & Wear Record Office has the registers for 1879-1936; the 1830-37 records were deposited in 1837 and are in the PRO, though they appear in the Index to Non-Parochial Registers as Presbyterian, not Unitarian. James Williams (1816-68), the Sunderland Chartist leader, appears tantalisingly in the 1830-37 records as a committee member and his family appear in the post-1878 records. It is said he met his wife, Barbara Wilson (?born Aberdeen 1818-22), while he was serving a 6 months sentence in Durham Gaol for making seditious speeches and she was living (?as a servant) with the prison governor's family. Neither their marriage (Williams was released in Jan. 1841 and they were living together in the June 1841 census), nor the birth of their eldest children (James, b.1841/2, and Annie Fox, b.1843/4) can be traced in St. Catherine's House. Did they marry in Scotland?
- 441 Mr E. BALMER, 127 Nursery Rd, Sunderland, Tyne & Wear.
Seeking the birth of Ralph Balmer, c.1784/5, possibly in southern Scotland. Ralph married Sarah Harland at Houghton-le-Spring and their first three children were baptised at St.George's Presbyterian Church, Robinson Lane, Sunderland (Scotch Church); he died at Houghton. Also seeking the births of John Roberts Tonkinson (Yorks. 1825/35); George Frater (1838/42 - glassmaker, "North East"); Frederick William Denton (1830/35, Wisbeach, Cambridge); William Mustard (1750/54, Hartley - Earsden); Thomas Fairbairn (Joiner, 1800/1820, Scotland); Ralph Simpson (pre-1865, ?Whitburn), his wife, Sarah Dixon (also pre-1865, ?Whitburn); and Sarah Harland (1790/93, Guisborough, Yorks.).
- 576 Mrs R. DOVE, 6 Derby Cres, Hebburn, Tyne & Wear, NE31 2TP.
Seeking any information about John Orwin or Urwin, glass engraver, who married Dorothy Delap, 14/6/1812; also, Elizabeth Peacock, who married James Orwin/Urwin. Also interested in any Urwin/Orwins, esp. Thomas, who fought in the American Civil War and was later US Vice-Consul in Newcastle; he was born in Newcastle in the early 1800s.
- 720 Mrs H. ALLINSON, 125 Westerham Rd, Sittingbourne, Kent.
Having trouble finding birth certificates for Robert Collins and Margaret Jane Smith, who married in Stockton in 1887 aged 20 and 21 respectively; both their fathers were called Henry and both were coal miners. Also seeking birth certificates of William Brannigan, born Shotton 1894, son of James and Sarah Brannigan, and of Margaret O'Connell, b. Newcastle, 1892, daughter of Bridget & Patrick O'Connell.
- 783 Mrs A.B. ENGLISH, 3 Braid Mount Rise, Edinburgh, EH10 6JW.
Trying to trace the parents of William Peddie, born c.1793, who gave his birthplace as Scotland, and of Jane Bartram/Bertram, born c.1788, Northumberland; they married c.1818 and lived on Holy Island. Also searching for the baptism of their first two children, Catherine and John, born before 1823 - records may be in Presbyterian or Seceding churches. Also any information on the Dawes family, on Holy Island 1841-1850; Richard Dawes was a naval man and had a large family, believed to be all daughters, two of whom, born in Kent and Norfolk, married on Holy Island. Also, further details of Warrior/Wharrior/Wharrier families in Durham and Northumberland; James Warrior was born in Howdon or North Shields, 1816/17. His wife, Jane Brown, was born in Newcastle (St. Andrew's?), 1822/3.

- 803 Mr V. EUSTACE, Gardener's Cottage, Parkside, Wimbledon, London, SW19. Searching for: (1) Cull, Northumberland, mentioned in an 1888 death certificate; and (2) "Died Hotys (possibly Hotgs) Pudg, burried Heddon" 1788 - it has been suggested this refers to a farm, but all Mr Eustace's family have been builders.
- 812 Mr B. HASTINGS, 1 Bowman St, Whitburn, Nr. Sunderland, Tyne & Wear. Trying to locate Nicholas Hastings and his wife Sarah in the 1871 Census; they came from Wighton, Norfolk, and were in Houghton-le-Spring in 1875. Would also appreciate any record of the surname in any census for any area. Also trying to back up family legend by finding the link between Catherine Victoria Marshall (bap. Southwark, London, 1840, dau. of Wm. & Ann Marshall, née Ayre) and a Sir John Oliver Scott of the Riding Mill area - they were apparently cousins. Catherine's family were also connected to the Burgess family of Kilburn, London, and to a Thomas & Isabella Jobling, who may have worked for the Williamsons of Whitburn Hall.

INDEX TO VOLUME 5

Mr D.G. Linley has again kindly undertaken the task of indexing the Journal. This index follows the same lines as that published last year. Page numbers refer to volume 5: pp. 1-30 are in No. 1, pp. 31-60 in No. 2, pp. 61-90 in No. 3 and pp. 91-120 in No. 4. Please remember that a name may occur several times on one page.

As last year, in the genealogical name index a general page reference is only given for a surname where there is no subsequent reference to a particular Christian name on that page. The place index lists all place names mentioned in volume 5 except members' addresses and "modern" places such as record offices, etc. It is arranged by counties: Durham, Northumberland, other English counties, Welsh, Scottish and Irish counties, followed by the rest of the world by country. Each section is in alphabetical order. Hamlets, farms, etc., appear under their parish or nearest village. The index to articles, etc., lists articles under their heading in quotation marks and under their topic.

A MEMORIAL TO MURDER

The following inscription from a stone in Kirk Merrington Churchyard recalls an ancient murder, of which the full story may be read in James J. Dodd's History of Spennymoor, pp. 39-44:

"Here lie the Bodies of John, Jane and Elizabeth, children of John and Margaret Brass, who were murdered the 25 of January 1683, by Andrew Mills, their father's servant, for which he [was executed] and hung in chains. Restored by subscription 1787."
